

Mother Disciple

To be able to look into God's eyes,
to touch God's fingers,
to smell God's essence,
to hear God's voice—worship followed wonder!

Believing that unseen angels were close,
sensing the magnitude of possibility,
treasuring the sacred physical connection—
from the beginning I
loved you as a mother,
and as a disciple.
